Here's Life Story of 'Dear Abby'

"Dear Abby" column makes its debut in today's Star, replacing "Dorothy Dix" which has been this newspaper's column for women for the last 19 years. Following is the biography of Abigail Van Buren (Dear Abby), who in private life is Mrs. Morton Phillips. She writes from San Francisco, but her column is distributed by McNaught Syndicate, Inc., New York.

Seldom does the personality of a writer shine through the printed word as strongly as in the case of Abigail Van Buren — the "Dear Abby" who deals out careful, sympathetic and usually pungent advice to problem-ridden readers of more than 550 newspapers throughout the United States and abroad.

Abigail Van Buren

Abby in print is witty, compassionate, idealistic, earthy, practical and never a bore. Abby in person is exactly the same.

The saga of Abby is an acknowledged phenomenon of letter-day journalism. Since January 9, 1956, she has evolved from a volunteer do-gooder to the most widely-read columnist in America.

Biblical Text

Who is she? What is she? Where did she come from? Abigail Van Buren is a name she chose of her own invention. She selected Abigail from the Old Testament ("Blessed art thou and blessed is thy advice, O Abigail"). The surname she borrowed from Martin Van Buren, our eighth President, because she liked the "aristocratic old family ring."

Abby in real life is Mrs. Morton Phillips, wife of a successful businessman to whom she has been happily married for 23 years. She is the mother of two teen-aged children, Jeanne, 19, and Eddie, 17.

Abby was born in Sioux City, Iowa, one of a pair of identical twins. Abby was named Pauline Esther, the other twin Esther Pauline. Their parents were Abraham Friedman, owner of a chain of theaters, and his wife, Rebecca. There were two other, older daughters, Dorothy and Helen.

From earliest childhood, Abby showed exceptional intelligence and vivacity, to which was added beauty as she grew into her teens. Abby's nickname was "Popo." She attended Morning-side College, where she majored in journalism.

Abby was 17, a senior in high school, when she attended a fraternity dance at the University of Minnesota. There she met a quiet handsome, brown-eyed young man named Morton Phillips. Phillips fell hard for the attractive and popular "Popo" and found his feelings reciprocated. After a long-distance romance of three years, they were married.

Morton Phillips soon became an executive of National Presto, Inc., a family-owned company which manufactured pressure cookers. He and Abby settled down in Eau Claire, Wisconsin, headquarters of the firm. Here their children were born.

It was a pleasant life. Abby busied herself with her home, and in her spare time became active in the American Red Cross (she trained Gray Ladies). She worked enthusiastically.

American Ships in Show of Force at Saigon

By ROY ESSOYAN

SAIGON, Viet Nam (AP) — The U.S. destroyer Lyman K. Swenson arrived in Saigon today for what could be an American show of force following the sinking of the aircraft transport Card in the Saigon River.

A Navy spokesman said the Swenson was on a routine operational visit. Aboard was Capt. C. C. Hartigan Jr., commander of the 7th Fleet's Destroyer Squadron Nine.

The Swenson tied up within sight of the Card, which has been partially refloated since terrorists tore a 28-foot hole in its side with explosives before dawn Saturday.

Salvage workers were patching the hole preparatory to pumping out the vessel.

Saigon still was tense and on the alert Monday with patrols checking downtown traffic and troops swarming around the dock area.

No one was seriously injured aboard the Card but eight Americans and a Vietnamese were wounded when another terrorist tossed a handgrenade into the midst in Saigon Saturday night.

Four of the wounded said they wanted to get back to the battle zone as soon as they could.

Extra Day Produced 12,000 Kids

WASHINGTON (AP) — This year's extra February day was credited today by the Public Health Service for an increase of about 12,000 in the number of babies born in February as compared with February 1963.

An estimated 326,000 live babies were born in February this year, the service said, compared with 314,000 in the 1963 month.

"The increase over the same month of last year was largely due to the extra day in February of 1964, a Leap Year," the service said.

"The rate of childbearing continued the decline that has prevailed for over two years. In February, the crude birth rate was 21.6 live births per 1,000 population, and the general fertility rate was 107.8 births per 1,000 women aged 15-44 years; both rates, unaffected by the varying number of days in the month, were about one per cent below those of February 1963.

The service also pointed out that the extra February day this year was a Saturday, "the most popular day of the week for performance of marriages." There were 121,000 marriages during February, about 16,000 more than a year earlier.

The marriage rate was 8.0 per 1,000 population, nearly 10 per cent higher than the 7.3 rate in the 1963 month, continuing an upward trend which began more than a year ago.

The number of deaths decreased by 13,000, despite the extra day this year, and the February death rate was 9.8 per 1,000 population, down from 11.2 in February 1963.

Former Resident of Washington Dies

Mrs. Fannie Loveless, aged 79, formerly of Washington, died Friday at her home in Texarkana.

Survivors include two sons, P. Q. Loveless and Charles Loveless of Texarkana and a daughter, Mrs. C. C. Orr of North Little Rock.

Services were held at 3 p.m. Sunday at St. Paul Church of Ozan by the Rev. W. C. Lewis. Burial by Herndon-Cornelius was in St. Paul Cemetery.

Johnson Sends Fulbright to Trouble Areas

By BARRY SCHWEID

WASHINGTON (AP) — Chairman J. W. Fulbright, D-Ark., of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee set out today for Greece and Turkey with a commission from President Johnson to demonstrate this government's concern over the Cyprus situation.

Fulbright took off at 8:30 a.m. by military plane, heading first for London.

He plans to be in Athens, Greece, Wednesday and Ankara, Turkey Thursday.

Fulbright long had planned a trip to Europe, but Athens and Ankara were not added to his itinerary until he called Sunday at the White House for a discussion with Johnson.

Afterward the White House announced that the President had asked Fulbright to "express to the Greek and Turkish governments the continuing interest and concern of both the President and Congress with the disturbing situation on Cyprus."

The announcement said that the Arkansas Democrat will not carry any suggestion regarding the ultimate settlement of the Cyprus question because this must await the proposal of the U.N. mediator.

Rather, the White House said, Fulbright "will convey the sense of urgency felt in the United States regarding the need for the restoration of order on the island, and will report to the President his impressions as to the views of the Greek and Turkish governments."

The Cyprus problem is in the hands of the United Nations.

Four Negro Youths Drown at Osceola

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Four Negro youths drowned Sunday in a water-filled construction company pit 1½ miles south of Osceola in Mississippi County.

The victims were identified as Lawrence Pete Jr., 12; Michael Tate, 12; Charles Robinson, 12, and his brother, Scotty Robinson, 13. All were of Osceola.

Investigating officers said the boys apparently did not realize how deep the water was and walked into it. Their bodies were recovered from a depth of 50 feet. Officers said none could swim.

Another Negro youth, Eddie Reader, 19, of Texarkana drowned while swimming in a pond on the Frank Davis farm six miles northwest of Hot Springs.

Lawrence Banning, 55, of Fort Smith, drowned Saturday in a stock pond three miles northwest of Mulberry. Deputy Sheriff Frank Gregory said Banning disappeared while swimming and failed to come up.

Sidney Banks, 41, of Cotton Plant, was killed Sunday when the pickup truck he was driving overturned on Arkansas 17, three miles north of Cotton Plant.

John Bruce, 75, of Cherry Valley, died Sunday of injuries suffered Saturday when he was struck by a car at Weona.

The deaths Sunday brought to 18 the number of persons who died violently in Arkansas during the week ended Sunday at midnight.

Nine of those deaths were drownings, all of which occurred either Saturday or Sunday. The remaining nine deaths were the result of traffic accidents.

State Weather to Continue Mild

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Arkansas will continue to have mild weather under clear to partly cloudy skies through Tuesday, the U.S. Weather Bureau said today.

The bureau said southerly winds will continue to increase the moisture in the air with widely scattered afternoon and evening thundershowers. Temperature changes will be minor.

High readings in the 80s were predicted for Tuesday with overnight low readings in the 60s.

Maximum readings Sunday were from 79 at Harrison to 87 at Texarkana. Low temperatures early today ranged from 58 at Walnut Ridge to 67 at Texarkana.

Rockefeller Against Rights Measure But Agrees With Moral Objectives of Bill

NEW YORK (AP) — Winthrop Rockefeller, the Arkansas Republican gubernatorial candidate, said Sunday that he is opposed to the civil rights bill now pending in Congress even though he agrees with its moral objectives.

Rockefeller discussed the measure, the integration problem in Arkansas, the Hot Springs gambling issue and other topics on NBC's nationally televised "Meet the Press."

Rockefeller said he felt the civil rights bill delegates too much police power to certain federal agencies and said the police power provision may have more impact than some anticipate.

He said he feels that some portions of the bill are a "reinforcement" of the already expressed will of the American people, but added "Probably in the last analysis, the problem is going to have to be solved at the grassroots level."

Rockefeller said he thought that his democratic opponent, Gov. Orval E. Faubus, would make civil rights a campaign issue, but said he believes Faubus is less of a segregationist than he sometimes appears.

Rockefeller described himself as a moderate on the integration issue.

In discussing the Arkansas civil rights situation, Rockefeller said he felt progress is being made in a healthy manner and, with the leadership in the state, it will continue that way.

He said racial problems in the state should be solved in the individual communities and applied this particularly to integration of schools.

Rockefeller said he is morally opposed to gambling but added that he thought the question of legalizing gambling at Hot Springs should be decided by referendum.

He said a statement he made last month in which he said he felt he could win the governor's race "if the votes are counted" was made more in jest than otherwise.

Rockefeller conceded that the statement was a pretty strong one but added: "Voting irregularities have been uncovered in some places."

He said he did not intend to imply by the statement that the majority of election officials are crooked.

Rockefeller also voiced opposition to the Medicare plan for medical assistance to the aged through social security.

Present medical care and insurance merely needs better distribution, he said.

Commenting on President Lyndon Johnson's war against poverty, he said he thought the term "poverty" needs a better definition.

Panelists who questioned Rockefeller on the program were John Steete of Life and Time magazines; Leslie Carpenter, the Arkansas Gazette's Washington correspondent; Merrill Mueller of NBC and Lawrence E. Spivak, permanent panelist and producer of "Meet the Press."

City Board to Air Some Key Issues

The Board of City Directors at their regular meeting, scheduled at 8:30 p.m. tonight, are due to hear some more applicants for a community antenna franchise. There has been a sudden flurry of interest for a franchise of this type of operation and the board of directors cannot understand the reason for the sudden interest.

Mayor Douglas has postponed the hour of the meeting from 8 o'clock to 8:30 p.m. due to commitments of several of the members which would cause them to be late for the 8 o'clock meeting.

Calvin Hare, owner of property adjacent to the location of the Oakhaven Sewage plant is scheduled to appear for a discussion of a lagoon which is to be built to take the place of the old abandoned sewer treatment plant which serves the entire Proving Ground area.

A representative of the State Pollution Control Commission will be on hand to discuss the need for this, and explain the operation of a lagoon.

Some representatives of the Park and Recreation Commission are scheduled to appear with a request for some improvements to the lighting of the Baseball field. Many of the old fixtures are in bad condition, and their proposal will be to increase the lighting on the field without increasing the electric load.

Zack T. Stone, 57, of Blevins, Buried Monday

Zack T. Stone, aged 57, a retired farmer and rancher, died Saturday at his home near Blevins.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Irene Stone; two daughters, Connie and Kay Stone of Blevins, his mother, Mrs. Tom Stone of Blevins, a brother, Willie Stone of Blevins and a sister, Mrs. Elgie Carmen of Blevins.

Funeral services were to be held at 2 p.m. Monday at Sweet Home by the Rev. A. C. Kirby. Burial by Herndon-Cornelius was to be in Sweet Home Cemetery.

Thinks Russia Has Pulled Out Big Rockets

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Defense Department said today it has "no information indicating any change in the characteristics of the ground-to-air missiles installed in Cuba, despite published reports."

The statement was handed to reporters by Arthur Sylvester, assistant secretary of defense and the Pentagon's top spokesman. He was referring to accounts of a belief, current here, that the Soviet Union may have pulled its better rockets out of Cuba and deprived Fidel Castro of means to blast high-flying spy planes from the skies.

A pullout of the higher-flying rockets would lessen the likelihood that the dispute with the Red-ruled island could erupt in a clash of arms. It also would go a long way toward explaining Prime Minister Castro's May Day statement that Cuba is alone in her dispute with the United States.

Castro has conceded that his armed forces cannot shoot down the high-flying American planes without the Soviet rockets. Thus, when he said on May Day that "we will prevent these flights to the limits of what our weapons can do," he may have been revealing a new weapons limitation.

The Soviet rockets are a remnant of the 1962 arms and manpower buildup which reached crisis proportions when detected by U.S. intelligence. Soon after a showdown that October, the Russians pulled out their intermediate range ballistic missiles and began reducing their armed forces.

Two weeks ago, authorities here reported about 3,000 Russians remained on the island, but that they would soon be withdrawn, leaving in Cuban hands 24 anti-aircraft missile bases equipped with Soviet rockets. Now the word is that the missiles have been removed along with some troops, but that a large proportion of the military force remains.

Last week Washington reminded Cuba that reconnaissance flights would be continued. Castro, in turn, said the Cuban people no longer would tolerate them and Soviet Premier Khrushchev charged the flights threatened "the abyss of another war."

Engine Provides Operation Lights

MALIBU, Calif. (AP) — While a fire engine generated power for lights in a hospital operating room, doctors performed surgery on a victim of the traffic accident which had knocked out the lights.

Firemen rushed to Malibu Emergency Hospital Sunday after a collision sent a car into a power pole, cutting off the hospital's electricity.

Doctors used emergency lighting to treat face injuries suffered by Mark Salkin, 15, of Studio City.

Teacher of Year to Be Awarded

WASHINGTON (AP) — Lawana Trout, who can still lend a hand with a tractor or combine at harvest time, goes to the White House today to receive the Teacher of the Year award from President Johnson. Mrs. Trout is an English teacher and student counselor at Charles Page High School, Sand Springs, Okla.

She was chosen from a list of teachers nominated by the chief state school officers in each state. The annual award is sponsored by the Council of Chief State School Officers, and Look magazine.

The award is a gold lapel pin, and a framed award certificate. Mrs. Trout grew up on a wheat farm near Hastings, Okla., and says she still helps her father at harvest time.

Honors run in the Trout family. Mrs. Trout was named Oklahoma Teacher of the Year in 1963 and her husband, Verline, won that distinction a few years earlier.

Her husband now is studying for his doctorate at Oklahoma State University and hopes to become a college biology teacher.

He Had Right to Dispose of His Property

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Arkansas Supreme Court ruled today that Sam Bell of Faulkner County did not have the right to give away his property before he died in prison in 1962.

Bell owned about $25,000 worth of real and personal property which he gave to a niece, Leila Doreusseaux, before his death Nov. 28, 1962.

At the time Bell died a $125,000 suit filed against him by a nephew, William Robert Bell, was pending in the Faulkner Circuit Court. William Bell was suing for gun wounds inflicted on him by Sam Bell. It was for shooting Robert Bell on Nov. 16, 1961, that Sam Bell was sentenced to 15 years in prison.

The Faulkner Chancery Court held that, while Sam Bell had given away his property before William Bell filed a damage suit in May, 1962, that William Bell became a creditor of Sam Bell at the moment he received his injury at Sam Bell's hand. It said Sam Bell did not have the right to give away all his property when William Bell had a claim against it.

The Supreme Court also affirmed a Greene Circuit Court jury verdict awarding Mrs. Mildred Haley a $12,898 damage award against L. V. Rhine, who had been her attorney in a divorce action against her husband, Dr. R. J. Haley.

The jury found that Rhine had been negligent in failing to take proper action to a property settlement the judgment after Mrs. Haley asked him too.

Haley sold land he owned in Greene and Lawrence counties and moved to Louisiana to avoid paying a $13,000 property settlement awarded Mrs. Haley in the divorce suit.

Harris is opposed by Hope businessman Dean Murphy, a Democrat.

The newsletter said, "If such reports are true, it must be coming from sources outside the state. It is certainly much more than I have, and from my experience, more than is contributed for such purposes (re-election) in our district."

"If anyone can accumulate such sums in the operation of a truck stop, it would seem to me unwise to give it up."

Race Imbalance Issue Avoided by High Court

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court refused today to rule if school boards must assign Negro and white pupils to schools in such a way as to avoid racial imbalance.

The ruling was asked by counsel for Negro children in Gary, Ind., where they said more than 97 per cent of the city's approximately 23,000 Negro students attend schools separate and apart from almost the entire white school population.

Such school systems, the counsel said in their appeal, "are no less segregated than those systems where separate Negro schools are mandated by state constitution or statute."

The appeal was from a decision by the U.S. Circuit Court in Chicago that held Gary did not violate constitutional rights of Negro pupils.

The Circuit Court said the school board there had consistently followed a policy that required students to attend the school designated to serve the district in which they live, regardless of race.

The Supreme Court rejected the Negroes' appeal in the Gary case in a brief order which made no comment. The rejection lets the decision of the Circuit Court in Chicago stand unchanged.

“DEAR ABBY”

Memo To Daughters-In-Laws!
By Abigail Van Buren

Here's Life

Dear Abby: Mother's Day will soon be here and I wish you would say something in your column to remind "young marrieds" to remember their mothers-in-law, too. Even if it's only a card or a note. There were so many years when I should have remembered my mother-in-law, but I was too "busy."

This year I will send her a spray of flowers — to the cemetery — bitterly regretting that I failed to send her flowers while she was living. I should have appreciated her more, written her more about her grandchildren, whom she loved so much, and most of all I should have let her know how much I had grown to love her. I hope others will not make the same mistake I made because next year may be too late. Abby, please sign my real initials so my father-in-law will know how I feel.

J. O. (Oceanside, Calif.)

Dear Abby: I was interested in your reply to "Dirty Old Man's Wife." You said, "He's sick. Get him to a doctor." I've known for years that my husband is "sick." It is so humiliating to sit in restaurant with him while he flirts with the waitresses, or any woman sitting nearby whose eye he happens to catch. And when he stares at the young girls from their feet up, and then down again. I want to run!

I meet my friends away from home because they won't come by if they know he's there. I have many worthwhile interests, such as music, gardening, books and church work, but, oh, for a companion to grow old with!

Yes, I realize he's sick. But how do you get a man in his 60's to a doctor?

Dear Abby: Just read about "Papa Joe," who was born in the old country and didn't know his birthday so he picked one himself. My husband was in the same boat and picked a day in November for his "birthday." When he took out citizenship papers, he wrote to his sister in the old country and asked her to send him his birth certificate but also the certificate of his baptism. That's when we found out he was really born in March, and according to the "birthday" he had been celebrating, he was baptized before he was born!

Good joke

Confidential To Mrs. "F.": The letter you sent me from your mother contained a treasury of good sense. You would be wise to implement her "three suggested rules" for disciplining your children. She loves you or she wouldn't have been so candid.

Get it off your chest. For a personal, unpublished reply, write to Abby, Box 3365, Beverly Hills, Calif., 90212. Enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Hate to write letters? Send one dollar to Abby, Box 3365, Beverly Hills, Calif., 90212, for Abby's new booklet, "How To Write Letters For All Occasions."

For a reply to your personal letter write same address.

Negro Ejected From Gallery in Senate

WASHINGTON (AP)—A Negro spectator was ejected from the visitor's gallery today after he arose from his seat to denounce the Senate's handling of the civil rights bill.

"How can you say you are for the black man when there are only five senators here and only two carrying on the debate?" he asked.

Sen. George A. Smathers, D-Fla., who held the floor at the time, continued his speech against the measure although his words were barely audible in the press gallery. Attendants rushed the Negro from the gallery.

Washington Police Capt. James Powell, in charge of the plainclothes detail on the Senate side of the Capitol, questioned the man briefly and sent him to D.C. General Hospital for what Powell described as "mental observation."

Powell identified the man as Kenneth Washington, 26. He said the man said his home is in Passaic, N.J.

Powell told reporters the man "has been in D.C. General before, judging from papers we found in his brief case." He said the man was picked up once before outside the White House and taken to the hospital for observation.

Sen. Thomas H. Kuchel of California, a leader of the Senate's civil rights forces, staked out a victory claim today over the Morton jury trial amendment.

The meeting is one of three authorized by Labor Secretary Willard Wirtz. It is designed to help schools in developing curricula and guidance programs to help meet manpower requirements.

Slayer Wants Conviction Set Aside

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Attorneys for Paul Louis Beckwith, a Negro charged in the 1954 slaying of a white woman at Brinkley, argued before the Arkansas Supreme Court today that he should be freed because he was not tried within two terms of court after his arrest.

After hearing oral arguments, the Supreme Court took the case under advisement. A decision could come next week. If the court refuses to clear Beckwith, his order will open the way for his trial on the murder charge.

The case spans 10 years, starting with the death of Sue Helen Fuller at Brinkley Dec. 12, 1954. Mrs. Fuller died from a blow on the head administered with a stick of stove wood.

Beckwith was one of 40 or 50 persons arrested the day of the slaying but he and the others were released a week later when a man named Willingham confessed to the murder.

Authorities later rejected Willingham's confession but Beckwith was not arrested again. Less than a month after the slaying Beckwith was charged with burglary in Desha County and sentenced to three years in the Arkansas penitentiary.

On his release in 1957 he was extradited to Missouri to be tried there on a burglary charge. He was at that time charged in Arkansas in connection with a burglary at Brinkley, but no murder charge was placed against him.

Beckwith was convicted in Missouri and sentenced to prison. In July, 1962, he was charged in Monroe County, Ark. with the Fuller slaying. He was returned to Arkansas in August, 1962, and has been in jail at Clarendon ever since.

His attorney, Wiley A. Branton of Atlanta, told the Supreme Court that Beckwith should be freed because no effort has been made to bring him to trial in the more than 18 months since he was returned to Arkansas.

Branton said state law requires that a defendant be brought to trial within two terms of court.

Branton also attacked Arkansas law which permits a man to be charged by information filed by the prosecuting attorney, rather than by grand jury indictment. He admitted that the Supreme Court has on numerous occasions upheld legality of a charge by indictment. "But the procedure in this case has been so irregular that it doesn't comply with the Arkansas Constitution."

Asks Reversal of Life Sentence

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The Arkansas Supreme Court was asked today to reverse the conviction and life sentence of Frederick L. Rush of Fort Smith, convicted of killing his foster father, Paul Rush, May 13, 1962.

Hugh Hardin of Fort Smith, attorney for Rush, listed several points in asking the reversal among them: Failure to obtain a change of venue, failure to sustain challenges of jurors for cause, refusal to grant a mistrial because the chief prosecution witness, Patricia Taylor, said she had taken a lie detector test, admission of a .44 caliber pistol as state evidence, and refusal to grant a new trial on newly discovered evidence.

Assistant Atty. Gen. Jerry Patterson and Pros. Atty. Lyman Mikel of Fort Smith argued against the petition for reversal.

Carlists Without Leading Lady

MONTEJURRA, Spain (AP)—The Spanish Carlists, who have sought the Spanish throne in vain since 1833, held their annual rally Sunday without their new leading lady.

Spain's chief of state, Generalissimo Francisco Franco, reportedly passed the word that the Carlists' leader, Prince Carlos of Bourbon-Parma, and his bride, Princess Irene of the Netherlands, should stay away from the annual pilgrimage to Montejurra, a mountaintop shrine in northeast Spain.

The newlyweds stayed in Madrid and sent messages. Carlos predicted the cause would eventually succeed, and Irene said she would attend the rally next year.

An estimated 100,000 Carlists made the pilgrimage to the mountain.

Gift Tea Honors Bride-Elect

The Hope Country Club was the scene of a gift tea, on Friday night, May 1, in honor of Miss Juanita Messer, bride-elect of William Elliott Thomas.

The guests were greeted at the door by Mrs. Byron Hefner, who in turn presented them to the receiving line, which included the honoree, Miss Juanita Messer, her mother, Mrs. Clifford Messer, and the groom's-elect mother, Mrs. Emma Thomas.

Mrs. F. J. Bruce invited the guests to sign the brides book presided over by Mrs. Glen Calhoun.

Mrs. Billy Mitchell assisted the guests to the area designated for the display of the many lovely and useful gifts.

Mrs. T. J. Barber directed the guests to the refreshment table, lovely in its floor length cloth of net over yellow taffeta.

It was centered with a very beautiful and dainty floral arrangement of yellow rose buds and florida jasmine.

Mrs. C. P. Tolleson presided over the punch bowl. Dainty cookies and nuts were also served.

Assisting in the house party were Kay Messer, Carla Purtle, Brenda Calhoun, Sherry Messer, Lanora Clark and Tonna Duke.

The hostesses were, Mrs. Roy Taylor, Mrs. Travis Ward, Mrs. F. J. Bruce, Mrs. T. J. Barber, Mrs. Billy Mitchell, Mrs. Arlis Honea, and Mrs. Robert Martin.

Approximately fifty guests called during the appointed hours.

Shower Springs 4-H Club Meets

The Shower Springs 4-H club met at the Fellowship Hall for their regular meeting of April. Jimmy Howell, president, brought the meeting to order and Linda Arrington, secretary, read the minutes and called the roll with 20 members and visitors answering.

Ken Cole was accepted as a new member of the club. Dwayne Arrington read the devotional. A clean-up committee was appointed to cut grass around the flowers at the club. Games were played and Judy England served refreshments.

Hope Council Of Garden Clubs Meets

The Hope Council of Garden Clubs met April 29 in the Community Room of the First National Bank.

The meeting was conducted by the president, Mrs. Buddy Porter, and reports were heard from various officers and committees and the flower show was discussed.

A nominating committee consisting of Mrs. Carl Bramlett, Mrs. Olaf Luck, and Mrs. Harold Stephens was appointed by the president.

The group agreed on May 4 as the day to place arrangements in downtown store windows in cooperation with the Art Festival.

An invitation was read from the Magnolia Council of Garden Clubs to attend their annual flower show to be held on the town square May 23.

The meeting was then adjourned.

Magnolia to Get New Post Office

WASHINGTON (AP) — Congress authorized Thursday the construction of a $397,000 post office-federal building at Magnolia, Ark.

It was one of 33 federal buildings and alterations to 28 others approved by Congress. Total cost of the projects is $238 million.

The Senate Public Works Committee approved projects which had been approved by the House Public Works Committee on April 14.

Going to World's Fair on a Bike

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—Paul R. Kepner, 68, is going to the world's fair — on his bike.

By sunup Tuesday he plans to be on his way. If Kepner doesn't beat his schedule, he'll complete the trip June 6. That's an average of 100 miles a day, the former college professor said.

Kepner said he's riding his bike to the fair because he likes exercise.

Twelve Homers Hit as Athletics Win 2 Games

By MURRAY CHASS
Associated Press Sports Writer

What hath Charles Finley wrought?

When the incendiary owner of the Kansas City Athletics declared war on the American League, even he couldn't have envisioned the devastating effect his strategy would have on Kansas City's Municipal Stadium.

Twelve homers were hit Sunday as the Athletics swept a double-header from Minnesota 7-4 and 8-7. That output increased to 24 the number of homers hit in the four-game series between the teams.

The Twins connected for seven Sunday and 15 altogether while Kansas City pounded out five in the doubleheader and nine in the series.

Home runs are being hit at Municipal Stadium at more than twice the rate they were hit last season.

Of course, Finley's tactics have helped. He acquired home run sluggers Rocky Colavito and Jim Gentile during the winter and more recently constructed his Pennant Porch and shortened the fences generally.

Colavito leads the league with six home runs while Gentile is tied for second with five. The closer fences have resulted in eight homers—six by the A's.

Finley may not win the war or the pennant, but he may beat the stadium into submission.

Elsewhere in the American League, there were three doubleheaders split. New York blanked Washington 4-0, then lost 6-5; Baltimore stopped Cleveland 5-2, then was shut out 3-0 and Chicago nipped Los Angeles 3-2, then dropped a 6-2 decision. Boston whipped Detroit 11-7 in the only single game.

In National League action, San Francisco defeated Los Angeles 6-3. Pittsburgh outlasted St. Louis 12-8. Milwaukee edged Philadelphia 1-0. Houston beat Chicago 5-3 and Cincinnati swept a doubleheader from New York 6-5 and 6-3.

Despite the home run attack, it took four walks in the ninth inning to win the nightcap for the Athletics. The Twins' Bill Pleis issued all of the passes, the last to George Alusik which forced in Nelson Mathews with the winning run.

Carl Yastrzemski joined the long ball parade with a grand slam homer that climaxed a run rally in the fifth inning and powered Boston past Detroit.

Dave Nicholson's three-run homer gave the White Sox their

North, South Even in Race Car Series

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — The North and South are even in the Yankee 300 series.

Fred Lorenzen, star of the Southern NASCAR circuit took the second annual stock car feature over Indianapolis Raceway Park's Road course Sunday at a record 79.127 miles an hour.

A. J. Foyt, defending champion of the Northern U.S. Auto Club, was winner of the Yankee 300 inaugural last year and in contention Sunday until his radiator burst.

Actually, Lorenzen lives in Elmhurst, Ill., and Foyt in Houston, Texas.

Parnelli Jones, the fastest qualifier, led for 97 laps around the twisting 2½-mile course but was whipped by transmission and clutch trouble and took second money. The Torrance, Calif., driver, Indianapolis 500 winner last year, operates for USAC.

Lorenzen, who set a record for stock car drivers by winning $110,000 last year, called Sunday's race the hardest he ever won — and he had taken five straight big ones.

Lorenzen drove a '64 Ford and Jones a '64 Mercury. All of the first five had Fords or Mercurys.

Third in a Mercury was Darel Dieringer, Charlotte, N.C.

Hope Scores One Point in Meet

By Carter Hardage
Hope Star Sports Writer

Hope came out rather on the rough end of things Saturday in the District track meet at Crossett. They scored only one point.

The Bobcats' only entry in the tally column was a fourth place in the high jump by Larry Thrash.

Crossett was first in the meet with 39 points. Smackover had 31, Camden 29, Malvern 24, Magnolia 21, Fairview 19, and Hope 1.

In the junior division Stannie Parris earned the Kittens their only point with a three-way tie for third in the high jump.

This was the close of the track season for the locals.

CROSSETT, Ark. (AP) — Crossett edged Smackover here Saturday to take first in the District AAA track meet.

Crossett scored 39 points and Smackover had 31. Other teams were Camden 29, Malvern 24, Magnolia 21, Camden Fairview 19 and Hope 1.

Camden won the junior high division with 64 points, followed by Crossett 45, Malvern 14, Magnolia 10, Smackover 9 and Hope 1.

Four Porkers Contenders for Medals

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) — The University of Arkansas doesn't figure as a likely champion in the Southwest Conference track and field meet at Lubbock, Tex., this week.

But four Razorbacks are contenders for gold medals in the meet Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

Arkansas finished fourth in last year's meet — the best Porker showing since the great Clyde Scott led them to third place in 1948.

The talented Arkansas quartet includes Jim Bane, Barry Bearden, Ed Renfrow and Dick Perry.

Bane, a three-sport star from Branson, Mo., holds the best high jump in the conference, 6-foot-6, a Razorback record.

He made the jump last Wednesday night after on three days of practice on the high jump. He had been kept busy with the Arkansas baseball team and, before that, the basketball squad.

Last year Bane worked only 10 days on the high jump, but finished second in the SWC meet with a 6-foot-4 showing. The versatile 6-foot-2 Razorback feels he can reach 6-9.

The old Arkansas record was 6-5½ by Beverly Berry and Elmo Adams in 1950.

Renfrow probably faces the most interesting competition in Bobby May of Rice. They have opposed each other in three major relays this season—Texas, Kansas and Drake — and all three finishes have been decided an eyelash margin.

The Arkansas ace won the 120-yard high hurdles at Texas, but May won at Kansas and Drake. May's best time this year is a wind-assisted 13.8 seconds. Renfrow was clocked in 13.9 in the Arkansas Relays.

Perry holds the best broad jump in the league this year: 24 feet, 8 inches in the Texas Relays.

He also is defending SWC broad jump champion.

A bone spur on his right heel has hampered Perry, forced him out of competition the last two weeks, but Coach Ab Bidwell believes Perry will be set for the SWC meet.

Bearden is a sophomore, and inconsistent in the pole vault. Even so, his vault of 15 feet last month is the best in the league. He has topped 15-6 in practice.

He will face a veteran field that includes Steve Guynes of Texas, Warren Brattlof of Rice and Darrel Ward, a Little Rock boy attending Baylor.

Arkansas State Beats Mississippi

Broyles Not Satisfied With Game

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) — The Reds beat the Whites 12-7, but neither team did enough to drive Coach Frank Broyles from the adverb, "disappointing."

Broyles reached the verdict on two counts:

—The defense was not aggressive enough.

—The running game was ineffective.

The ground attack for the Red team resulted in these statistics:

Bobby Burnett 10 carries, 38 yards gained; Bob Nix, six carries, 26 yards; Jack Brasuell, six carries, 25 yards; Bill Gray, 10 carries, 56 yards.

The Whites got 47 yards from Jerry Mooty on 14 carries and 21 yards from Martine Bercher on five carries. No other White rusher gained more than five yards net.

The passing was more impressive, both in completion percentages and yards gained.

Gray threw 16 times, completed eight for 67 yards. Fred Marshall of the White team threw 23 times, completing 14 for 178 yards. Both Gray and Marshall threw for a touchdown.

One of Gray's eight incomplete passes was intercepted by the Whites. Three of Marshall's throws were picked off by Red defenders.

One surprising aspect of the game was the fact that Gray ran the Red offense for about 70 per cent of the game. Jon Britten was in the charge the rest of the time.

Broyles had pegged Gray for mostly a defensive safety job this year—"70 per cent of the time."

Now, he says, he needs somebody to play defensive safety.

"We think Martine Bercher may solve the problem," Broyles said.

Marshall had been looked on as the No. 1 quarterback. There is no reason to think the situation is any different now. But Broyles apparently wants Gray handy if a replacement is necessary.

Broyles said the pass defense was "all right except for a couple of boys."

He praised the work of Gray and Marshall.

On the receiving end of their passes were Burnett (four for 33 yards), Lindsey (three for 41), Mooty (three for 39) Lamb (seven for 78).

Mooty returned two kickoffs 54 yards. Nix punted four times for a 43.5 yard average.

One problem seemed settled in the game: Substitution.

Broyles said his attempt to platoon the offense and defense "worked out fine. We had no trouble."

It was a big problem last season. Now, no matter what sort of substitution rule comes down from the Rules Committee, the Razorbacks ought to be able to work under it.

Briefly, the scoring in the first Red-White game:

Brasuell from the one with 1:59 left in the first quarter, Reds lead 6-0. Ronnie South's kick for the extra point is wide.

Gray passes four yards to Bobby Crockett with 10:52 left in the game. Reds lead 12-0. Gray's pass for two-pointer incomplete.

Marshall hits Tommy Trantham over the middle from the 12. Reds lead 6-6. Tom McKnelly kicks the extra point.

The Red team trough back a White march that got within 14 yards of a second touchdown.

The second Red-White game will be at 8 p.m. next Saturday in Little Rock.

Braves Boast Hurlers Other Than Spahn

By HAL BOCK
Associated Press Sports Writer

Shove over Warren Spahn. You may not be the Milwaukee Braves' only pitcher after all.

Perched in third place in the National League standings, Manager Bobby Bragan's club today can look back on three complete game pitching victories in the last four starts.

Sunday's 1-0 two-hit masterpiece by Hank Fischer against the Phillies followed Bob Sadowski's five-hitter against Philadelphia and Tony Cloninger's one-hitter against the Pirates.

The only loss in the four game stretch was charged to a 43-year-old southpaw on the staff of youngsters. Fellow named Spahn.

Fischer, sprung from the bullpen, turned in his third straight route-going performance, retiring the last 16 batters he faced.

The 24-year-old right-hander also produced the only run of the game in the second inning.

The shutout lowered Fischer's ERA to a flashy 1.93, best on the Braves' staff. "His best pitch was control," said catcher Ed Bailey. "He was hitting his spots and he made my job easy."

Elsewhere in the National League, Pittsburgh came from behind to whip St. Louis 12-8; San Francisco topped Los Angeles 6-3; Houston beat Chicago 5-3 and Cincinnati swept a doubleheader from the New York Mets 6-5 and 6-3.

In the American League, 12 home runs rocketed out of Municipal Stadium as Kansas City swept a twinbill from Minnesota 7-4 and 8-7; Chicago and Los Angeles split with the White Sox taking the opener 3-2 and the Angels bouncing back in the nightcap 6-2; Boston outlasted Detroit 11-7; Baltimore and Cleveland divided two with the Orioles winning the first game 5-2 and Cleveland the second 3-0. New York and Washington also split, the Yanks winning 4-0 and then losing 6-5.

Fischer surrendered singles to Tony Gonzales in the second and John Herrnstein in the fourth before shutting the door. He struck out four and walked two.

It was the first major league shutout for the $50,000 bonus baby who signed off the Seton Hall University campus in 1959.

Willie Stargell was the big gun for the Pirates driving in five runs with a home run and a single.

Juan Marichal had a shaky start before settling down and turning in his 10th straight victory for the Giants.

Willie Mays, soaked a single and his 10th homer raising his league-leading batting average to .459. Willie Davis had a two-run homer for the Dodgers.

Jim Wynn's two-run homer in the sixth carried Houston to its victory, the first for Hal (Skinny) Brown after two losses. Jim Beauchamp also homered for the Colts.

The Reds came from behind in both ends of their double victory over the Mets.

Nicklaus Is Winner at Las Vegas

By BOB MYERS
Associated Press Sports Writer

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP) — Golf star Jack Nicklaus is no sheik but he must love the desert.

Nicklaus, heading today with his fellow pros to the $75,000 Colonial Invitational at Fort Worth, has extracted $38,000 in one year from Las Vegas tournaments.

He scored his second straight victory Sunday in the $65,000 Tournament of Champions. It was worth $12,000. His 1963 triumph brought $13,000, and last fall his first place in the Sahara Invitational earned $13,000.

Nicklaus' victory Sunday was no walk in as it was a year ago. "The way I finished, some one else should have won the tournament," said Jack. He referred to his last round 73 for a 72-hole score of 279, which was six more shots than he required in the 1963 event.

Nicklaus closed out the affair in romantic fashion, however. Needing only a par 4 on the 18th green to win, he sank a 42-foot putt for a birdie and a winning margin of two strokes.

Tied for second were Al Geiberger, who could well have won the tourney, and Doug Sanders. Each got $6,000.

U.S. Open Champion Julius Boros, Chi Chi Rodriguez, Tommy Jacobs, Don Fairfield and Paul Harney tied at 282, and Arnold Palmer, with pairs of 72s and 70s, finished with 284.

Nicklaus started out three strokes in front of the field. At one point he was five shots ahead.

Travelers in First in the PC League

DALLAS (AP) — The Arkansas Travelers went into first place in the Pacific Coast League's eastern division Sunday with a 5-2 baseball victory over Dallas at Dallas.

Joel Gibson struck out 10 batters and had a home run as he got the victory for Arkansas.

Arkansas opened scoring in the first inning when two runs scored on a single by Norm Gigan, a double by Wayne Graham and another single by Costen Shockley.

Arkansas added three more in the sixth on Gibson's home run, singles by Gigan and Graham and a double by Alex Johnson.

The Rangers picked up their first run in the eighth on singles by Charley Shoemaker, Don Taussig and Jim Hughes. Ken Harrelson added the last run in the ninth with a homer.

John Morris relieved Gibson in the ninth following Harrelson's long hit and a walk by Ricardo Joseph. Joseph had ruined a no-hitter for Gibson with a single in the fifth.

With his 10 strikeouts, Gibson tallied 23 strikeouts in 21 innings.

Walnut Ridge and Harding Winners

SEARCY, Ark. (AP) —Walnut Ridge and Harding won District 2 track championships here Saturday night.

Gary Gullhrje scored 20½ points in leading Walnut Ridge to the 2A title, and Kent Smith rolled up 30 points to help Harding to the 2B victory.

The 2B results: Harding 75, Des Arc 31½, Judsonia 20, Bald Knob 19, McCrory 17½ and Beebe 10.

The 2B results: Harding Academy 90, Augusta 31, Heber Springs 16, Kensett 8, Pangburn 7, Maynard 6, McRae 5 and Grubbs 1.

Bad Start But Ties the Meet Record

By MARSHALL JOHNSON

QUANTICO, Va. (AP) —Either Gerry Ashworth's birthday came a day too early, or the Quantico Relays ended a day too late.

The former Dartmouth star was 22 last Friday. The next day he ran the 100-yard dash in 9.4 seconds, tying the meet record over a track that was just beginning to dry out after four days of rainy weather. And, he said, "I got off to a bad start—a very bad start."

For Ashworth, a native of Haverhill, Mass., who now lives in California, it was the latest step in a go-west program in an effort to get to Tokyo for the 1964 Olympic Games.

Ashworth won the ICA4A 100 yard dash last year, later came down with a muscle pull and missed nearly all the 1963 outdoor season.

The move to California has paid off, he says—"I'm in much better shape than I've ever been."

Joe Lynch of Georgetown was named the top performer in the Quantico Relays after he ran 4:09.6 to win the invitational mile on the heels of a 4:09.8 anchor leg Friday that won the distance medley relay.

But it was a Villanova day as the Wildcats atoned for a miserable Friday performance in which they unexpectedly lost three relays.

Second Riot in Austria in 3 Days

By HANS BENEDICT

VIENNA, Austria (AP)—The Soviet bloc's second riot in three days broke out in Sofia as Communist youths blocked the path of Bulgarian Orthodox churchgoers en route to Easter Mass.

Youth group demonstrations during Prague's May Day celebration Friday turned into battles with Czechoslovak police and resulted in 31 announced arrests.

The official Czech news agency, CTK, confirmed the disturbances in Prague, but Bulgarian government agencies remained silent about the clashes in Sofia.

Reports from Sofia said hundreds of churchgoers had been involved in clashes with both police and Communist youths.

Entrances to Alexander Nevsky Cathedral in Sofia were blocked by youths shouting atheist slogans. Police closed the cathedral doors to prevent incidents, and the fighting ensued.

Patriarch Cyril, spiritual leader of the Bulgarian Orthodox Church, was to have celebrated the Resurrection Mass, climax of the Orthodox Easter celebration.

An announcement said the

Station Applies for New Antenna

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Arkansas Educational Television Commission re-applied Wednesday for Federal Communications Commission permission to build a new antenna on the old tower of Television Station KATV.

T. E. Tyler, AETC chairman, said the application had to be filed with the FCC because it had dismissed the original application filed by KATV.

"If the FCC acts promptly on our application and the federal Health, Education and Welfare Department approves matching funds for construction, we should be on the air by the end of December or first of January," Tyler said.

patriarch was ill and Bishop Nikolai rector of the Academy of Theology had taken the patriarch's place.

In Prague, CTK said the 31 persons under arrest had been charged with disturbing the peace. The news agency denied reports received outside Czechoslovakia that university students had led the rioting against the police.

Reports received in Vienna said 3,000 students had participated in the rioting in Kinsky Park, where they had gathered for traditional May Day poetry reading.

The reports, relayed by diplomatic sources, said the violence had bordered on open revolt. They said the students had shouted antigovernment slogans after police had ordered them to disperse.

PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT NO. 53 (Legislative)

That the following is hereby proposed as an amendment to the Constitution of the State of Arkansas, to-wit:

"SECTION 1. The first unnumbered paragraph of Section 4 of Article 12 of the Constitution is hereby amended to read as follows: 'No municipal corporation shall be authorized to pass any laws contrary to the general laws of the State; and, except as otherwise specifically authorized by amendments to the Constitution, no municipal corporation shall be authorized to levy any tax on real or personal property to a greater extent, in one year, than one per cent of the assessed value of the same.'

"SECTION 2. Section 9 of Article 16 of the Constitution is hereby amended to read as follows: 'Except as otherwise specifically authorized by amendments to the Constitution, no county shall levy any tax on real or personal property to a greater extent, in one year, than one per cent of the assessed value of the same; provided however, that not less than three-eighths of the amount of any such tax shall, as specified by the county tax levying authority, be used exclusively for the construction, reconstruction and maintenance of roads and bridges in the County Highway System.'

"SECTION 3. Amendments No. 3, 22 and 27 to the Constitution are hereby repealed."

"SECTION 4. The provisions of this amendment shall take effect and be in full force on and after November 4, 1964."

4 Wounded Americans Will Return

By ROY ESSOYAN

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP)—Four young Americans wounded by a Communist grenade attack in downtown Saigon are anxious to return to the battle zone.

"It's safer there than here in Saigon," said Lt. Hector Dittamio, 22, of West Paterson, N.J., with a wry smile.

U.S. Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge had driven along the Saigon Street Saturday night just 10 minutes before a Viet Cong terrorist on a bicycle lobbed the hand-made grenade into a group of American servicemen.

Pfc. Joseph G. Gustafson, 25, of Bayfield, Wis., said he saw the grenade rolling at them.

"I hollered 'Watch it' and started to run. There was a tremendous bang. I kept running. I didn't realize I'd been hit until I looked down and there was blood all over me."

"It exploded two feet away from me. I guess it's a miracle I'm still alive," said Spec. 4 John Arnett, 19, of Louisville, Ky.

Staff Sgt. Ireneo Mayo of the Philippines said he had just crossed the street and had stopped to light a cigarette when, "Boom, the first thing I knew I was on the ground."

The four men are attached to a helicopter company at Soc Trang, in the Communist-infested Mekong delta. They were on their first weekend leave in Saigon.

In all, eight Americans were

PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT NO. 52 (Legislative)

That the following is hereby proposed as an amendment to the Constitution of the State of Arkansas, and upon being submitted to the electors of the State for approval or rejection at the next general election for Representatives and Senators, if a majority of the electors voting thereon, at such an election, adopt such amendment, the same shall become a part of the Constitution of the State of Arkansas, to-wit:

"Section 1. Section 1 of Article 6 of the Constitution shall read as follows: 'The executive department of this State shall consist of a Governor, Lieutenant Governor, Attorney General, Secretary of State, Treasurer of State, and Auditor of State, all of whom shall keep their offices at the seat of government, and hold their offices for the term of two years and until their successors are elected and qualified; and the annual salaries of the aforesaid officers shall be as follows: Governor, $13,000; Lieutenant Governor, $3,600; Attorney General, $12,000; and Secretary of State, Treasurer of State, and Auditor of State, $10,000 each.'

"Section 2. The following provisions of the Constitution as they existed prior to the effective date of this amendment are hereby repealed: Section 1, 12 and 13 of Article 6; Section 11 of Article 19; Section 1 and 6 of Amendment 6; and Amendments 15 and 37.

"Section 3. The effective date of this amendment shall be January 1, 1965."

Arkansan Killed at Stanford

PALO ALTO, Calif. (AP)—Christopher Corbin Jr., 22, of Fort Smith, Ark., was killed on the Stanford University campus here Thursday.

Corbin, a business school student at Stanford, was attempting to make a left turn on his motorcycle when it rammed the rear of a truck at an intersection. He was dead on arrival at Palo Alto-Stanford Hospital.

Corbin graduated in 1963 from the University of Arkansas. He also attended Southern Methodist University and Tulane University. He was the son of the Fort Smith school superintendent.

The Dancer Going After Triple Crown

By KELSO STURGEON
Associated Press Sports Writer

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—Kentucky Derby winner Northern Dancer is heading for Baltimore and the May 16 running of the Preakness, second leg on racing's Triple Crown, but trainer Horatio Luro has a no-hum attitude about it all.

"It doesn't mean much to win the Triple Crown anymore," the Argentine said today. "When these three were the only races, it was different, but now there are dozens of big races for 3-year-olds."

The fact, remains, however, that the sweep of the Derby, Preakness and Belmont stakes hasn't been accomplished since Citation in 1948 and is generally considered the biggest prize in thoroughbred racing.

Northern Dancer, of course, off his narrow triumph over the favored Hill Rise in Saturday's 90th running of the Derby, America's most prestigious race, is the only eligible. The shortstriding little colt is the first Canadian-bred ever to win the Derby.

Luro, incidentally, gives full credit to jockey Bill Hartack's ability to get the most out of The Dancer's talents as the difference in the neck victory, completed in Derby and track record time.

"The horse is 75 per cent and the jockey 25 per cent," Luro said. "If they both give their best, you win most of the time."

Willie Shoemaker, who rode Hill Rise, offered no excuse for his horse, who was trying to catch the winner in the final sixteenth of a mile. Early in April, Shoemaker decided not to ride Northern Dancer in the Derby, saying he thought Hill Rise was a much better horse.

"Shoemaker rode a perfect wounded in the terrorist attack. The four still hospitalized suffered multiple shrapnel wounds but were reported in good condition.

Saigon has had hundreds of terrorist attacks in the past 10 years. The Communists are expected to step up such attacks during May, which contains several Communist and Vietnamese holidays.

Viet Cong propaganda was expected to exploit the disabling of the U.S. aircraft ferry ship Card as a David and Goliath victory against the United States.

Communist saboteurs fixed an explosive charge to the side of the ship Saturday as it was moored alongside the dock in the Saigon river and blew a hole in the side. The ship settled to the muddy river bottom. Repairs are under way and plans are being made to raise her.

race too," Luro said. "But somebody has to run second."

Northern Dancer finished in two minutes flat—two-fifths of a second better than the record set two years ago by El Peco's Decidedly, also trained by Luro and ridden by Hartack.

Northern Dancer, who took the lead in the $156,800 Derby as the field of 12 made the stretch turn, covered the last quarter of a mile in 24 seconds, tying a record set in 1941 by Whirlaway.

Following the top three, in order, were Roman Brother, Quadrangle, Mr. Brick and Mr. Moonlight. They will head for New York within a day or so and await decisions by their trainers on entering the 1 3-16 mile Preakness.

The victory was Hartack's fourth in the Derby—something almost unbelievable when one considers that he's only had six mounts in the classic and none has been favored.

Northern Dancer's victory, his sixth straight, was worth $114,300 to owner E. P. Taylor of Toronto and gave the son of Nearctic-Natalma a record of 13 victories, two seconds and one third in 16 starts.

About 40 minutes before Northern Dancer's victory, the 1963 Kentucky Derby winner, Chateaugay, disappointed at Aqueduct in his first start as a 4-year-old.

Chateaugay finished eighth in a field of 11 in the seven-furlong $57,700 Carter Handicap won by Ahoy, under top weight of 133 pounds.

British Out Front in Davis Play

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Great Britain, 1963 European Zone Davis Cup tennis winner and 1964 favorite, meets hapless Ireland in the second round this week. The series will be played at Eastbourne, England, Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

Britain completed its first round chores Saturday, beating Austria 5-0. Ireland had to go all the way and get some help from the weather Sunday to defeat Switzerland 3-2. Wind and rain which interrupted play a couple of times at Dublin didn't bother Ireland's Peter Jackson and Derek Arthurs as much as it did their opponents.

Italy, Germany and France, other European Zone favorites, scored impressive victories while Spain and Holland turned in a couple of surprises.

Italy dropped a singles match to Egypt at Bari after clinching the decision and won 4-1. Germany swept five matches from Belgium, using second-string players in the last two singles. France made it 5-0 over Bulgaria.

Argentina and Denmark also came through the first round without losing a match, against Turkey and Finland, respectively.

Spain, with Manuel Santana in the leading role, took the last two singles matches to eliminate Brazil 4-1. Russia got past Morocco the same way and by the same margin. Holland.

Other weekend matches saw Norway defeat Portugal 4-1 and Rhodesia defeat Israel 4-1.

Earlier Yugoslavia and Sweden had scored first round victories and South Africa and Czechoslovakia had reached the second round by defaults.

After the Britain-Ireland match, the major second round encounters appear to be Germany vs. Russia and Italy vs. Rhodesia. Other pairings are Argentina vs. Yugoslavia, South Africa vs. Norway, France vs. Holland, Spain vs. Denmark, and Sweden vs. Czechoslovakia.

Faubus Says Gambling Bill Will Fail

LITTLE ROCK (AP) - Gov. Orval E. Faubus said today that he thinks the effort to legalize gambling at Hot Springs will fail.

Faubus said he opposes gambling on moral grounds, but he reiterated that he would accept the will of the people.

The Hot Springs Chamber of Commerce in trying to get a constitutional amendment on the November ballot to legalize gambling.

Faubus said in a news conference:

"In our time, the people of Arkansas regard excessive or intemperate gambling as inherently evil and the consequences bad for the people of the state."

"It is my opinion that a substantial majority of the people of the state consider full-scale, organized casino gambling as intemperate and excessive and its effects as harmful."

"Therefore any effort to legalize this type of gambling either through action of the legislature or vote of the people will be futile."

Faubus said he doubts that legal gambling would have a major effect on the crime rate in Arkansas.

Faubus said 2nd graf LR34, eliminating 6th graf "He said x x x moral grounds."

Police Looking for a Tigernaper

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP)—Police are looking for a "tigernaper."

A nine-week-old tiger cub was stolen from the Grant Park Zoo in Atlanta over the weekend.

Zoo Superintendent Johnny Dilbeck fears it will die from pneumonia or lack of proper feeding.

A sister to the bottle-fed cub was left behind.

Ga. Crops Are Damaged by Floods

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP)—Southerners, drenched with torrential rains which caused flash floods and crop damage, welcomed a promised respite from soggy weather as a storm spawned in the Gulf of Mexico moved out into the Atlantic.

Continuous rains and thunderstorms for almost a week caused small streams to rise over north Florida, southwest Georgia and southern Alabama.

The heaviest rains came during the weekend. Nearly six inches fell during a 24-hour period in some areas.

Thunderstorms were accompanied by high winds in the Miami area which caused some property damage and two persons were cut by flying glass when a garbage can was blown through a window.

There were 21 traffic fatalities in Georgia during the weekend, and 16 in Alabama. Normally, there are about half that number. Most of the accidents happened on rain-slick highways.

Crop damage was extensive in south Georgia, where spring planting already was delayed by late freezing weather.

About 100 families were removed from flooded houses at Augusta, Ga., where nearly five inches of rain fell in a 12-hour period.

Two men drowned at Maxville, Fla., near Jacksonville, while trying to evacuate a flooded house.

Dominican's Junta Is Threatened

By MORRIS W. ROSENBERG

SANTO DOMINGO, Dominican Republic (AP)—A threat to the Dominican Republic's seven-month-old ruling junta appears to be developing from a transport strike which touched off violence in the capital.

Military and civilian leaders held separate conferences examining the situation.

Police failed to halt demonstrations Sunday that accompanied the strike of taxi and bus drivers.

Unruly crowds burned tires, smashed bottles and dumped garbage in Santo Domingo streets.

The government declared the drivers' strike illegal, saying it was politically motivated and that the union had failed to give written notice stating the date and reasons for a strike.

Repeated government radio broadcasts warned the public that a 1962 decree of national emergency still was in effect. The decree authorized deportation of any person endangering public order by agitation or subversion.

Military leaders ousted President Juan Bosch Sept. 25, accusing him of being soft toward the Communists. The military then relinquished control to a three-man civilian junta.

The present triumvirate — Donald Reid Cabral, Manuel Tavares Espallat and Ramon Caceres Troncoso — is regarded as conservative and anti-Communist.

The transport workers struck in protest against three recent junta decrees.

These banned public meetings without authorization, increased duties on a wide range of imports, including automobiles and auto parts, and authorized the police to seize licenses of drivers involved in traffic violations.

XIX

The party that Jenny's mother gave followed an informal, inexpensive pattern; the garden and maids of the pensione she was staying at were borrowed for the night, bowls of punch were set out on tables, and music was added by an ancient, hand - cranked record player.

There were 18 or 20 guests, and about half of them stood about the punch bowls while the others danced on the brick floor of the garden. It was a lovely night, with a half-moon that looked close enough to touch, and cool breezes stirring the bougainvillea which grew lushly along the garden walls.

Almost everyone dressed casually, the women in slacks and sweaters, the men in jackets without ties. Malcolm was one exception to the sartorial informality; he wore a dark suit, a wool knit tie, and a white shirt.

Another exception was provided by a tall, middle-aged Englishman with a cold face and disapproving mouth.

He spoke briefly with Malcolm. His name was Gregory Neville. He was in Spain on a short holiday. This was his third day in Cartama and a certain twitch of his thick brown mustaches made it clear he considered that about three days too long. Gregory Neville wrote detective novels.

Malcolm sat against the wall on a stone bench and looked at the dancers.

Paco sat down beside him and patted his shoulder gently. "Maybe you need a drink, eh?"

"No, I'm all right," Malcolm said, shaking his head slowly.

"You don't want a drink, that's very strange, very funny," Paco said.

At the entrance to the garden Malcolm saw Coralee Davis greeting the tall young Germans who had left their card on his table at the Bar Seville.

Coralee noticed Malcolm sitting with Paco, and waved gaily to him. The two Germans followed the gesture with their eyes, and when they saw Malcolm their faces lit up with pleasant smiles of recognition, and they bowed to him with easy formality. Cor

Some 5-Column Comics Missing

Today's revised comic page doesn't represent the final form it will take when all strips are available in the new 5-column width rather than the old 4-column size.
NEA Service, Cleveland, was unable to get us the following in the 5-column width in time for today's edition: Bugs Bunny, Freckles, Morty Meekle, and Short Ribs — so they are presented in the old 4-column style.
Eventually all strips will be 5 columns wide except Flash Gordon, which King Features Syndicate, New York, advises is available only in 4 columns.

Contract Awarded for River Lock

LITTLE ROCK (AP)— Army Engineers awarded a $21,536,276 contract Thursday to Al Johnson Construction Co. of Minneapolis and Peter Kiewit Sons Co. of Omaha to build Arkansas River Lock and Dam No. 3.
They combined for the low bid April 23.
The dam, between Grady and Snow Lake, should be constructed in three years, nine months. Construction is expected to begin late in May.

Racial Strife Not at End in Chester, Pa.

By LEE LINDER
CHESTER, Pa. (AP) — For five months Negroes in this old industrial city have demonstrated in the streets, protesting that their children attend segregated and unequal schools.

Dozens have been hurt, many heads bloodied, hundreds more jailed.

The end is not in sight. "Chester is the Birmingham of the North," says James Farmer, national director of the Congress of Racial Equality.

"When they block the streets, when they are disorderly, when they riot instead of march, they are breaking the law," says Mayor James T. Gorbey, a 43-year-old lawyer who took office in the midst of the turmoil.

"The law is the same for everybody, and will be administered for everybody," he says. Chester, chartered in 1701 by William Penn, is the oldest city in Pennsylvania. It has 63,000 residents, including 27,000 Negroes.

It is 15 miles south of Philadelphia, and a few miles north of the Mason-Dixon line.

Demonstrators in Chester also are demanding better jobs and more jobs, better housing and more housing. But it's the noisy, fist-swinging, rock-throwing battle to integrate all the schools—a civil rights issue that faces many other Northern cities—that has filled the jails.

This is the question: "Is a neighborhood school a segregated school?"

Negroes say de facto segregation is segregation by design; that it means inferior, unequal education. They demand an immediate end to all-Negro schools—four of the 16 here.

The school board insists it operates an integrated system. It says any segregation is unintentional, and results because children of one race live in the same neighborhood and go to the same school.

Frances P. Donahoe, president of the school board, which has one Negro member, says, "To talk about de facto segregation is not to talk about segregation, but about a condition over which we have no control."

She insists that the Negro leadership really wants busing which cannot be done without the consent of parents — and white parents are staunchly opposed.

Stanley Branche, 30-year-old

Castro Will Try to Prevent Flights

HAVANA (AP)—Prime Minister Fidel Castro said Wednesday night Cuba will try to prevent U.S. reconnaissance flights over this island "to the limits of what our weapons can do."

But in remarks to diplomats and newsmen attending a Japanese diplomatic reception, he did not specify if that means Cuba will use Soviet rockets to try to bring down U.S. U2 planes.

The United States has announced it will continue such flights despite Cuban protests and Soviet support of the protests.

Castro said Cuba "will not surrender an inch in the problem of flights." He said "we will defend our sovereignty whatever it may cost and wherever it may happen."

chairman of the Committee for Freedom Now, says he isn't advocating busing, the transfer of pupils to create a racial balance in all schools.

"But we want the school board to do something and do it now," he adds.

What does he suggest?

"Nothing," Branche replies calmly. "The program must come from the board. We'll sit down with them. We'll talk with them. I met three times with them, but they won't budge. They just won't budge."

Charles Long, superintendent of schools, says, "We definitely are integrated. Every school in our system has Negro children."

"Token, token, token," shouts Branche. "What are 10 or 20 or 30 out of 500 or more. That's not equal."

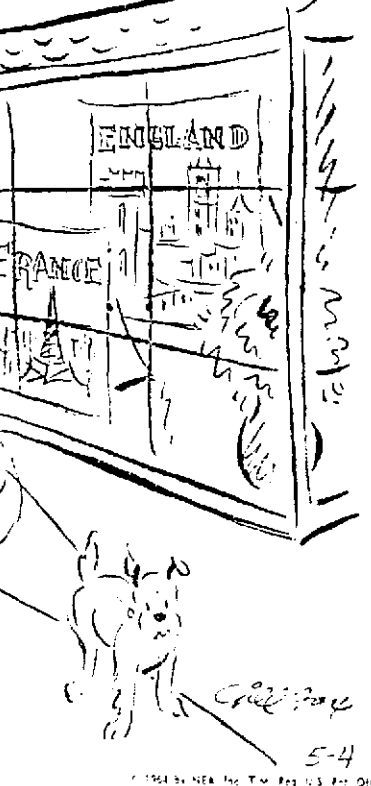

Long acknowledges that four schools are all - Negro and a fifth has 10 whites among 1,000 pupils. The schools have 11,150 pupils, of whom 6,725 are Negro.

Philip Savage, tri-state secretary for the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, sometimes has worked with Branche, sometimes ignored him—and sometimes been ignored. He is considered more moderate but, like Branche, was arrested for demonstrating.

Savage looks favorably to efforts of the State Human Relations Commission, or the courts, to settle the dispute.

There are more than two million acres of lands in the Ouachita and Ozark Mountains that are national forests.

Methodists Argue About Racial Issue

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Controversy over the race question continued on and off the floor today at the 1964 General Conference of the Methodist Church.

In the forefront was a report which endorses civil disobedience within "most carefully circumscribed limits." The report, "Christian Social Concerns," is scheduled for debate tonight.

Integrationist forces moved behind the scenes to bring back to the floor a plan which calls for integration within the church on a voluntary and gradual basis. Integrationists want the plan strengthened.

The "Christian Social Concerns" report was presented over the weekend by the Rev. Harold A. Bosley, pastor of Christ Church, Methodist, New York.

Part of the report said: "Christians have long recognized that after exhausting every reasonable legal means for redress of grievances, the individual is faced with the moral and legal dilemma of whether or not his peculiar circumstances require obedience to God rather than men."

The report contended that individuals must make such judgment in certain instances in the current struggle for racial justice.

It continued: "In rare instances where legal recourse is unavailable for redress of grievances from law which are clearly unjust or immoral, the individual is justified in obeying God's authority rather than man's. Even then, meticulous care must be taken to prevent proliferation of civil disobedience beyond most carefully circumscribed limits."

During debate Saturday the Rev. G. Ross Freeman of Atlanta, Ga., moved for removal of the paragraph referring to obedience to God's authority rather than man's.

"It would be tragic for the news to go from this place that the Methodist Church endorses civil disobedience and, therefore, anarchy," the Rev. Mr. Freeman said.

Debate on the report followed an all-night vigil by Methodists from many parts of the country who came to Pittsburgh to protest what they said was a weak effort by the conference to end segregation in the church.

After the vigil, in two downtown churches, and a kneeling at the city's modernistic Civic Arena, where the conference is in session, some delegates vowed to try and force a new vote on a plan to merge the church's Negro jurisdiction with its white conferences.

The demonstrators had been protesting the plan, saying it failed to provide speedy action.

BERLIN (AP) — Communist authorities have freed the last American believed to be a prisoner in East Germany.

John Frederic Loba, 41, of Alameda, Calif., was released Thursday after serving nearly two years of a 2½-year sentence for helping East Germans flee to the west.

PANAMA (AP) — U.S. and Panamanian negotiators will meet in Washington next week but will not take up the basic issues of the Panama Canal dispute until the middle of the month.

ACCRA, Ghana (AP)—Ghana's government hospitals are down to their last 60 vials of snake bite serum, Health Minister Lawrence R. Abayana says.

The West African nation normally uses 6,000 vials a year.

NEW DELHI, India (AP) — Talks between SHEIK Abdullah and Prime Minister Nehru on the bitter Kashmir problem may continue until next week.

They held a two-hour exploratory session Thursday on the problem of religious minorities in the Himalayan state, divided by India and Pakistan, and the desire of many Kashmiris to be independent of both.

The trend of the conversations was not revealed.

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — The Security Council is expected to meet in mid-May on a request by 57 African, Asian and American nations for immediate action to prevent racial conflict on South Africa.

VIENNA (AP)—Stefan Cardinal Wyszyński of Poland arrived today from Warsaw for talks on the situation of the Roman Catholic Church in Eastern Europe and a pilgrimage to Austria's national shrine of the Holy Mary.

The Polish primate, who will go to Rome Sunday to attend commission meetings of the Ecumenical Council, was greeted at the railroad station by his host, Franziskus Cardinal Koenig.

A fancy dress ball was held at the Old State House to honor Arkansas officers returned from the Mexican War.

Descendant of Royalty Dies

KILLARNEY, Ireland (AP)—Francis Alexander Eveleigh-Ross-De-Moleyns, a descendant of King James IV of Scotland and one of Britain's greatest landowners, died at his Irish home Wednesday, relatives announced today. He was 63.

His Balmagown Castle estates, in northern Scotland, covered 300,000 acres until he sold 100,000 for 420,000 pounds ($1,176,000) last year.

The cause of death was not announced.

Doubts That Gambling Will Up Crime

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Gov. Orval E. Faubus said today he doubts that legalized gambling at Hot Springs would have a major effect on the crime rate in Arkansas.

Faubus said that records in Nevada, where gambling is legal, indicate that the resident crime rate is low, but there is a high incidence of crime by visitors.

"In this way legalizing gambling might add to the problems of law enforcement in the Garland County area, but I don't think it will affect the rest of the state adversely," Faubus said.

Faubus said about a year ago that legalizing gambling might bring in crime syndicates, but he said now that a proposed amendment to legalize gambling in Garland County has adequate safeguards to keep the syndicates out.

"It appears well nigh impossible for them to get in," he said.

He said he still opposes gambling on moral grounds.

Turning to highways at a news conference Faubus said he will bring out his plans for a rural road construction program, "at a time of my own choosing."

The Highway Commission said Wednesday that it is drawing up a rural road construction program and Faubus said this is all right with him.

"I'm not committed to accept it," he said. "I'll take their ideas and any other ideas I get and put them together and come up with the best program possible."

Faubus said he did not feel that his drawing up a road construction program would interfere with the Mack-Blackwell Amendment, which was designed to take the Highway Commission out of politics.

"The Mack Blackwell Amendment says nothing about the power of the legislature to legislate in this field," Faubus said, "or of the power of the governor to recommend to the legislature."

NEW YORK (AP) — If "Ben Casey" had it to do all over again, chances are that the dedicated doctor would pick a specialty other than neurosurgery.

"Neurosurgery is pretty self-limiting," explained the ABC series' technical advisor.

The technical advisor, incidentally, is not a neurosurgeon, but a registered nurse, Alice Rodriguez, who inherited the job when Dr. Max Warner, the brain surgeon who first worked on the show, was called into the Navy. She talks like a real doctor after all her association with medical problems.

Mrs. Rodriguez' job, however, does not involve hunting new diseases and ailments to fit storylines. That is done by the three medical consultants who work with the script writers.

Sometimes she bandages simulated wounds. She checks out the operating room to make sure the instruments are in correct sequence. She orders supplies. Most important perhaps, she hunts for incorrect procedures and un-medical dialogue in scripts.

The past season has been a rather traumatic one for the glowering surgeon-hero and his cohorts. ABC shifted the show from its popular Monday night spot to Wednesday nights and an hour when two popular comedy shows are shown on a rival network. "Ben Casey" dropped abruptly from its levels among the 10 top shows to—in the most recent Nielsen rating—40th place. Next season, however, it will be restored to its old spot and, hopefully, its former popularity.
